

Children under the age of 6 will not be allowed in treatment areas of the Kellogg Cancer Center for their safety and to maintain an appropriate environment for all patients.

Children aged 7 to 16 must be accompanied by a responsible adult (other than patient) and remain with the responsible adult in patient room or the appropriate waiting area.

Children under age 12 will not be allowed in multi-chair treatment areas.

Patients in Kellogg may have two visitors accompany them to their doctor visit and/or treatment room. To ensure a safe environment for patients and staff, additional visitors may wait in the designated waiting area.

Exceptions may be made on a case-by-case basis.
