Do I Have a Concussion?

A concussion can occur with either a direct impact to the head or something less obvious like a whiplash injury that causes the head and/or neck to shift position suddenly. While athletes are often considered to be most prone to concussions, other common causes include car accidents and falls.

Frequently Seen Concussion Symptoms

- Headache
- Memory loss
- Blurred vision
- Nausea
- Confusion
- Dizziness